

The Cuckoo She's a Pretty Bird

English Trad.

SOPRANO
Oh the cuc-koo she's a pret-ty bird, she sings as she flies, she bring-eth good tid-ings and

ALTO
cuc - koo she sings, she flies, bring - eth tid-ings and

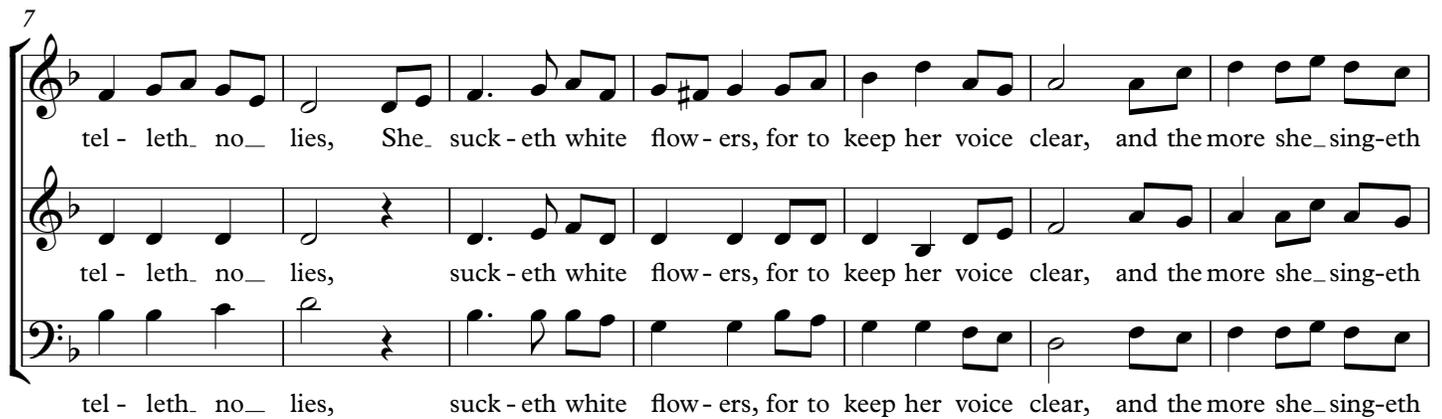

BASS
cuc - koo she sings, she flies, bring - eth tid-ings and

7
tel - leth no - lies, She suck - eth white flow - ers, for to keep her voice clear, and the more she sing - eth

tel - leth no - lies, suck - eth white flow - ers, for to keep her voice clear, and the more she sing - eth

tel - leth no - lies, suck - eth white flow - ers, for to keep her voice clear, and the more she sing - eth

14
cuc - koo, the sum - mer draw - eth near. O _____ cuc - koo, the sum - mer draw - eth near. As I was a - walk - ing and talk ing one day, I _____ cuc - koo, the sum - mer draw - eth near. O _____

22
_____ meet - ing was a plea - sure but the court - ing was a met my own true love as she came that way, for the meet - ing was a plea - sure but the court - ing was a

_____ meet - ing was a plea - sure but the court - ing was a

29

woe, I found him false heart-ed, he'd kiss me, and then he'd go. Oh I wish I were a woe, I found him false heart-ed, he'd kiss me, and then he'd go. Oh I wish I were a woe, I found him false heart-ed, he'd kiss me, then he'd go. Oh I wish I were a scho-lar, and could han-dle the pen, I would write to my lo-ver and to all ro-ving.

36

scho-lar, and could han-dle the pen, I would write to my lo-ver and to all ro-ving.

scho-lar, and could han-dle the pen, I would write to my lo-ver and to all ro-ving.

42

men, I would tell them of the grief and woe that at-tend on their lies, I would

men, I would tell them of the grief and woe that at-tend on their lies, I would men, I would tell them of the grief and woe that at-tend on their lies, I would ask them have pi-ty on the flow-er, when it dies.

47

ask them have pi-ty on the flow-er, when it dies.

ask them have pi-ty on the flow-er, when it dies.

then verse 1
again