

Twa Corbies

Scottish trad

1.As I was/a-walk - ing all a - lone, I heard twa cor - bies mak-in' moan, the tain un -

1.As I was/a-walk - ing all a - lone, I heard twa cor - bies mak-in' moan, the tain un -

1.As I was/a-walk - ing all a - lone, I heard twa cor - bies mak-in' moan, the tain un -

5

to the tith-er did say - o, Where shall we gang and dine the day__ oh,

to the tith-er did say - o, Where shall we gang and dine the day__ oh,

to the tith-er did say - o, Where shall we gang and dine the day__ oh,

9

Where shall we gang and dine the day? 2.In be - hind yon auld fail dyke, I wot there

Where shall we gang and dine the day? 2.In be - hind yon auld fail dyke, I wot there

Where shall we gang and dine the day? 2.In be - hind yon auld fail dyke, I wot there

13

lies a new-slain knight, and nae-bo-dy ken that he__ lies there, o, but his lies a new-slain knight, and nae-bo-dy ken that he__ lies there, o, but his

lies a new-slain knight, and nae-bo-dy ken that he__ lies there, o, but his

17

hawk and his hound and his la - dy fair, — o, his hawk and his hound and his la - dy
 hawk and his hound and his la - dy fair, — o, his hawk and his hound and his la - dy hawk and his hound and his la - dy fair, — o, his hawk and his hound and his la - dy

20

fair. 3. His hound is to the hun ting gone, his hawk to fetch the wild fowl home, his la - dy's fair. 3. His hound is to the hun ting gone, his hawk to fetch the wild fowl home, his la - dy's fair. 3. His hound is to the hun ting gone, his hawk to fetch the wild fowl home, his la - dy's

25

taen an - oth - er mate, o, so we may mak a din - ner sweet, o, taen an - oth - er mate, o, so we may mak a din - ner sweet, o, taen an - oth - er mate, o, so we may mak a din - ner sweet, o,

29

so we may mak a din - ner sweet. — 4. I'll sit on his white horse bane, — and I'll pike so we may mak a din - ner sweet. — 4. I'll sit on his white horse bane, — and I'll pike so we may mak a din - ner sweet. — 4. I'll sit on his white horse bane, — and I'll pike

33

out his bon-ny blue een, with ma-ny a lock of his yel - low hair, o, out his bon-ny blue een, with ma-ny a lock of his yel - low hair, o, 37 out his bon-ny blue een, with ma-ny a lock of his yel - low hair, o, We'll theek our nest when it grows bare, o, We'll theek our nest when it growsbare. 5.Man - y a We'll theek our nest when it grows bare, o, We'll theek our nest when it growsbare. 5.Man - y a 41 We'll theek our nest when it grows bare, o, We'll theek our nest when it growsbare. 5.Man - y a one for him makes moan, but none shall ken where he has gone, o'er his white one for him makes moan, but none shall ken where he has gone, o'er his white 45 one for him makes moan, but none shall ken where he has gone, o'er his white bones, when they are bare, o, the wind shall blow for - ev - er bones, when they are bare, o, the wind shall blow for - ev - er 48 bones, when they are bare, o, the wind shall blow for - ev - er
 mair, o, the wind shall blow for e - ver mair.
 mair, o, the wind shall blow for e - ver mair.
 mair, o, the wind shall blow for e - ver mair.